God of Wealth

The Celestial Spirit of the Warrior Deity of Prosperity or God of Wealth enshrined at Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple originated from Tianshi Cave of Mount Qing Cheng, Sichuan, China. Historical records show that Tianshi Cave of Mount Qing Cheng is the ancestral temple worshipping the Warrior Deity of Prosperity. Annually, on the eve of Lunar New Year, Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple will engage Master Taoist Priests to lead devotees to usher in the God of Wealth.

* The timing and direction to usher in the God of Wealth differs every year. For more information, devotees may follow our Facebook or call 6744 3187 to enquire.

Usher in the God of Wealth

1. You are encouraged to pre-register for the event.
2. Alternatively, you may visit our temple on the eve of Lunar New Year to purchase a set of offerings at $8/set (while stock lasts).
3. Master Taoist Priests will lead devotees to usher in the God of Wealth. During the ceremony, red packets will be handed out to devotees.
4. After the ceremony, our temple's personnel will collect the joss papers from devotees. Devotees shall bring the joss sticks and God of Wealth portrait home. Alternatively, devotees may also place the joss sticks in the joss urn of God of Wealth in the temple.
5. You may put up the portrait of God of Wealth on the wall at home, and place the joss sticks in the joss urn of the altar. For devotees without an altar at home, you may place the joss sticks in a temporary joss urn and place the joss urn in the living room for the joss sticks to completely burn out.

Purchase/Collect your offerings

Usher in the God of Wealth by following the Master Taoist Priests

After collecting the red packet, bring the joss sticks home, placing it in the joss urn

In view of the Safety Measurement Measures, our temple will assist in the burning of joss papers

Prosperity Blessing

Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple has launched the Prosperity Blessing (lamp) for devotees to register and seek blessings from the God of Wealth for fortune and prosperity. Registration is now open. For enquiries, please call 6744 3187.

Prosperity Red Packets and Huan Qian Mu

Prosperity Red Packet

Devotees may ask for prosperity red packets on the 4th, 9th, 15th Day of the 1st Lunar month, to seek blessings from Sheng Hong Deity for fortune and luck in the new year. Devotees will need to cast the crescent oracle (擲杯). Devotees can collect the red packet only when a divine answer (圣杯) is obtained. Devotees who are blessed with the Prosperity Red Packet will need to return before the end of the year.

Huan Qian Mu 换钱母

From the 1st to 15th Day of the 1st Lunar month, devotees may visit the temple to ask for a Huan Qian Mu red packet from the God of Wealth. To obtain a Huan Qian Mu red packet, devotees will need to first drop a coin into the ingot of God of Wealth, symbolising using one's wealth to grow more wealth. Thereafter, ask for the Huan Qian Mu red packet. Lastly, using both hands, touch the ingot of the God of Wealth and sincerely seek for prosperity blessings. As devotees have used their own money to exchange for the red packets, devotees are not expected to return the red packets before the end of the year.

The Lead Devotee & Deputies

In the early days, the Lead Devotee is selected annually by casting the crescent oracle before the Deity. The devotee with the most number of divine answers was deemed as the “chosen one” and appointed as the Lead Devotee. The Deputies are appointed in accordance with the number of divine answers per devotee. They are considered as the representatives appointed by the Deity to prepare and lead the respective prayer rituals and other celebrations. Today, Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple continues with this tradition of “selecting” the Lead Devotee and Deputies.

In the past, their duties include organising Thanksgiving opera. They were required to go door to door to collect donations for the event. Today, the Lead Devotee and Deputies need only to attend and lead other devotees in the prayer rituals or celebrations.

According to folklore, Deities select devotees who have affinity with them to be the Lead Devotee and Deputies. During their tenure, if they carry out their duties whole heartedly, the Deity will bless them, clear the obstacles in their paths and bless them with good health and peace for the family.

To participate in this, each devotee will need to pay a subscription fee of $20 annually. Devotees can choose between which Deity to serve by registering for one or more of the following:

- Divine Master Qingshui: 6th Day of the 1st Lunar month
- Jade Emperor (Tian Gong): 9th Day of the 1st Lunar month
- Sheng Hong Deity: 28th Day of the 5th Lunar month

*After a devotee is appointed as the Lead Devotee or Deputy, he/she will need to attend and lead the prayer rituals.

The Sixty Tai Sui

The Celestial Spirits of the Sixty Tai Sui enshrined at Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple originated from Yuan Cheng Hall of Bai Yun Guan, Beijing, China. The consecration ceremony was conducted by Master Priest Huang Xin Yang, then Vice President of Taoist Association China, in 1993. In Singapore, most temples will worship only the presiding Tai Sui of the Year. Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple is the first Taoist temple in Singapore to enshrine sixty Tai Sui in the same hall.

Constant Brightness Blessing

Devotees may register for the Constant Brightness Blessing for peace, good luck and to accumulate merits.

Tai Sui is in charge of each individual's health, studies and work. By lighting a Constant Brightness Blessing (lamp), devotees seek to light up one's path ahead. $20/lamp (individual). Limited quantity, on first-come, first-served basis.

Constant Brightness Blessing Registration

Annually from the 4th Day of the 1st Lunar month, registration for the following year's Constant Brightness Blessing will commence. Registration is for one year only. Devotees may:

1. Register and make payment through our online service system. An electronic receipt will be sent to your email provided.
2. Visit the temple personally to register.

Light up period shall be one year, from the 1st Day of the 1st Lunar month to the 12th Lunar month.

Tai Sui Prayer during Lunar New Year

The 4th Day to the last day of the 1st Lunar month is the auspicious period to pray to Tai Sui. During this period, Master Taoist Priests of Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple will lead devotees to pray to Tai Sui, from 7am to 8pm daily, to seek blessings, eliminate disasters and to have a peaceful and smooth year ahead. Devotees are recommended to pray to Tai Sui at least twice each year; once to the presiding Tai Sui of the Year (during Lunar New Year); and secondly on each individual's Lunar birthday to one's Guardian Tai Sui.

Sequence to Tai Sui Prayer during Lunar New Year

1. Devotees are to personally complete the Tai Sui prayer scripture or take a queue number for the temple's personnel to assist in completing the prayer scripture
2. Purchase a set of Tai Sui joss papers (one set per devotee).
3. Proceed to the external of the Tai Sui Hall and hand the tea leaves and candy offerings to the temple's personnel who will assist you to place the offerings in the tray.
Light up 3 joss sticks and pray to Tai Sui, silently reciting your name, zodiac sign, and residential address, to seek blessings from Tai Sui.
4. Place your joss sticks in the Tai Sui joss urn. With the Tai Sui joss papers and scripture on hand, join the designated queue to enter the Tai Sui Hall.
Our Master Taoist Priest will lead devotees to pray to Tai Sui while in the Tai Sui Hall.
5. After the prayers, proceed to burn the scripture and Tai Sui joss papers.

Empty the tea leaves and candy into respective trays

* To minimize the waiting time, kindly prepare your Chinese name, Lunar birthday and time of birth.

Light up joss sticks to seek blessings from Tai Sui

Wait for your turn to enter the Tai Sui Hall

Master Taoist Priest will lead devotees in the ritual

Praying to One's Guardian Tai Sui

On one's Lunar birthday, you may prepare a box of vermicelli, five oranges or apple. While at the temple, devotees may seek the assistance of our resident priest to pray to one's Guardian Tai Sui.

Tai Sui Thanksgiving Prayer Rituals

Giving thanks to Tai Sui is a long-standing Chinese tradition. The Tai Sui Thanksgiving Prayer Rituals organized by Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple are conducted by Master Taoist Priests, supported by the temple's Scripture Chanting Group. There are 3 types of Tai Sui Thanksgiving offerings:

Thanksgiving Prayer $20 As an individual

Blessing Crystal $50 As an individual or as a family

Blessing Dipper Lamp $100 As an individual or as a family. Participants are required to provide personal details such as Lunar birthday, gender, Lunar age, and relationship with main applicant if registering as a family

Tai Sui Thanksgiving Prayer Rituals

Registration starts from the 2nd Lunar month of current year till the last day of the ritual or when registration is full, whichever is earlier. Devotees may call or visit the temple personally for further enquiries.

Jade Emperor (Tian Gong)

Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple marks the Birthday of Jade Emperor on the 9th Day of the 1st Lunar month. On the 8th and 9th Day of the 1st Lunar month, offering tables will be set up for devotees to place their offerings to Jade Emperor.

Jade Emperor Blessing Registration

Registration for Jade Emperor Blessing for the following year at $30/lamp will generally commence from the 1st Day of the 5th Lunar month of the current year. Registration can be as an individual or as a family. The light up period will be for one year from the 1st Day of the 1st Lunar month to 12th Lunar month. Devotees may:

1. Register and make payment through our online service system (an electronic receipt will be sent to the email provided)
2. Register through WhatsApp at 8127 6006. Our staff will provide you with our UEN to make payment via PayNow. After you have made payment, provide us with a screenshot of the transaction. Our staff will send you the electronic receipt.
3. Visit the temple personally to register.

Jade Emperor Blessing

Devotees may register for a Jade Emperor Blessing to seek blessings for good luck for the family, elders' wellbeing, and prosperity for your children.

Taboos for praying to Jade Emperor

- Devotees should refrain from praying to Jade Emperor if any direct family member has passed away within the last three years.
- Ladies who are having menstruation should refrain from praying to Jade Emperor.

Enhance One's Fortune

Enhance One's Fortune is a Chinese tradition that is observed during the 1st Lunar month. During the ceremony, Master Taoist Priests will conduct rituals to enhance the luck of the devotee and their family for the year. Generally, a total of ten days of such rituals will be organized. Registration is on first-come, first-served basis.

Registration

Registration for the Enhance One's Fortune ceremony for the following year will commence from the 1st Day of the 12th Lunar month of the current year. Devotees will have to visit the temple's office to register. During registration, every devotee is required to prepare all the names in Chinese, the Lunar birthdays, time of birth and full address of participants for the temple's personnel to process.

Important Notes

Devotees may register for the Enhance One's Fortune regardless of one's fortune

- Registration as an individual or family: $38/set
- If your daughter is married, please register her separately with her current family.
- Each registration includes an Enhance One's Fortune offering package.

Sequence to Register

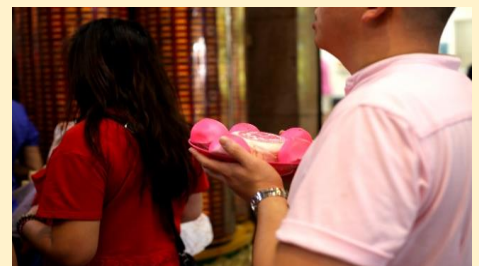

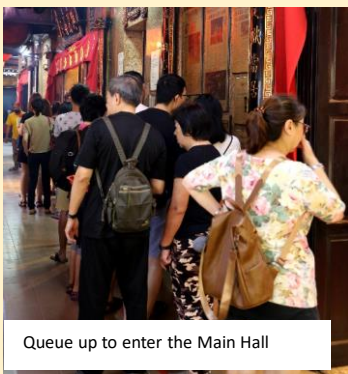

1. Devotees shall visit the registration counter and provide his/her family's Chinese names, gender, Lunar birthday, time of birth and address.
2. Select your preferred date for the Enhance One's Fortune prayer ritual.
3. After payment, please ask for the receipt.
4. Devotees will need to produce the receipt on the prayer ritual day to redeem the Enhance One's Fortune offering package.

Process for Enhance One's Fortune

Distribution of queue numbers will commence from 4am daily during the 10-day ritual, on a first-come, first-served basis.

1. Produce your receipt to obtain a queue number, after that proceed to the next counter to collect the offering package and joss papers.
2. When your queue number is announced, bring the offering package to the Main Hall and hand it to the temple's personnel.
3. Follow the instructions of the temple's personnel and the steps below:
 - a. For devotees who are bringing the clothing of absent participants, kindly refer to the photo below on how to hold it;
 - b. When you enter the main hall, the temple's personnel will guide you through the process;
 - c. After the ritual, proceed to the left of the Main Hall to collect your offerings and bow to Sheng Hong Deity. After which, devotees may proceed to pack the offerings to bring them home.

Taboos for Enhance One's Fortune

- Devotees should not participate if any direct family member passed away within the last one year (Devotee to count back a year from the date of ritual).
- If any direct family member passed away after registering for the ritual, devotees may come down on the registered ritual date to collect the offering package. Master Taoist Priest will not carry out the ritual for the devotee. You may bring home the offerings for consumption.
- Ladies who are having menstruation on the registered ritual date should not participate in the ritual. Devotees may request for any family members or friends to assist to participate on behalf in the ritual. Devotees should bring along and provide the clothing of participants who are unable to attend. If you are participating alone, kindly inform the temple's personnel. They will place your clothing on a chair for the priest to carry out the ritual.

Tiger Lord

Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple celebrates the Birthday of Tiger Lord, also known as “Awakening Day”, by preparing offering set* comprising of pork, bean curds, and eggs as well as Tiger Lord joss paper sets for devotee to purchase as offerings to Tiger Lord; to seek blessings for devious persons to stay away, clear all obstacles and for good luck in life. After praying, devotees may also bring home a pineapple*, to symbolise peace and prosperity.

*While stock lasts

Praying Sequence on the Birthday of Tiger Lord

1. Purchase a set of Tiger Lord joss papers and/or offerings and proceed to Tiger Lord's altar.
2. Holding the joss paper set and offerings with both hands, bow three times to Tiger Lord, and place the offerings on the altar platform.
3. Open up the joss paper set and hand over the tea leaves and candy to the temple's personnel who will assist to place them in the main offering tray.
4. Take out the pair of candles and joss sticks from the package.
5. Light the candles and place them on the candle stand. (One pair of candles can be placed on the same candle stand).
6. After you light the joss sticks, pray sincerely to Tiger Lord asking for Its blessing and place the joss sticks in the joss stick urn.
7. Join the designated queue with the joss papers.
8. When the priest is praying, silently recite your Chinese name, age, residential address, as well as company's name and address.
9. After the prayer session, you may paste the “Noble Person” paper set on the wall and burn the “Devious Person” paper set. (Red represents “Noble Person”; White represents “Devious Person”). If you are unsure of the correct way of pasting the paper set, it is advised to burn the paper set together with the joss papers. (After you have burned the joss papers, you may throw the green bean (in a small package) into the cave of the Tiger Lord – to symbolise a new beginning).

Place the offerings and candles

Master Taoist Priest will lead devotees in the prayer

Paste the “Noble Person” on the wall

Sheng Hong Deity

The Celestial Spirit of Sheng Hong Deity enshrined at Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple originated from the Sheng Hong Temple in Anxi, Fujian, China.

In 1917, Master Xiao Tian Ping of Sheng Hong Temple in Anxi, Fujian, China, brought the 5th Celestial Spirit and the statue of Sheng Hong Deity to Singapore.

Birthday of Sheng Hong Deity

The Birthday of Sheng Hong Deity falls on the 28th Day of the 5th Lunar month. Sheng Hong Temple will perform the opening ritual of inviting the Deities at 11am on the first day of the Thanksgiving opera while the closing ritual will be at 10.30pm on the last day of the opera. Annually, Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple will organize more than 100 days of Thanksgiving opera, from 7:45pm every night. Devotees are welcome to watch the opera 'live' at the temple*. During the opera performance period, a counter will be set up near the Main Hall to collect donations. Devotees may make donations and report or register as the "Godchild" of Sheng Hong Deity.

During the celebration of the Birthday of Sheng Hong Deity, Lorong Koo Chye Sheng Hong Temple offers thanksgiving item like Deities' Robes (while stock lasts, on first-come, first-served basis) for devotees to offer to Sheng Hong Deity and/or other Deities

Godchild of Sheng Hong Deity

Becoming a "Godchild" is a tradition in a Chinese temple. The purpose is to let the child become the godson or goddaughter of the Deity to receive blessings from the Deity. The process to become a "Godchild" is usually on the Birthday of the Deity and the "Godchild" needs to visit the temple annually on the Birthday of the Deity to pray and celebrate the Birthday of the Deity.

Devotees may scan the QR code or visit the temple to register as "Godchild".

"Godchild" of Sheng Hong Deity may mark his/her attendance at the counter during the celebration period and make a minimal "Godchild Donation". The temple's personnel will give the "Godchild" two oranges in return to symbolise luck and prosperity.

"Godchild" of Sheng Hong Deity is encouraged to bring fruits, vermicelli and joss papers as an offering to Sheng Hong Deity during the Birthday of Sheng Hong Deity or the "Godchild" Lunar birthday. "Godchild" may bring along any Sheng Hong Temple talisman or their tops and request to the temple's personnel to receive a stamp of the Celestial Seal of Sheng Hong Deity.
